

AMY N. UHL

LITIGATION LEGAL ASSISTANT
503.595.5300 | amy.uhl@klarquist.com

OVERVIEW

Amy provides administrative and substantive support to attorneys engaged in the litigation process. Her responsibilities include managing case files, coordinating court filings, and assisting in the preparation of legal documents such as pleadings and discovery requests.

Prior to working at Klarquist, Amy was a paralegal at a small law firm that practices criminal defense and personal injury law. Amy is an avid reader who enjoys spending time in nature, either camping or going for a hike. She also loves to work with stained glass and loves spending time with her children and fur kid.

Amy joined the firm as a Litigation Legal Assistant in 2014.

EDUCATION

▶ A.A.S., Paralegal Studies, Portland Community College, 2009