Klaus H. Hamm

Klaus is a Partner in the Portland office and he focuses his practice on intellectual property litigation. Mr. Hamm has experience leading teams in litigating intellectual property disputes in the software, e-commerce, videoconferencing, semiconductor, and pharmaceutical industries. His clients range from the world's most successful technology companies to startups.

He has represented clients in courts across the country, including California state courts, the Northern District of California, the Eastern and Northern Districts of Texas, the District of Oregon, the Southern District of New York, and the District of Delaware.

Prior to joining the firm in 2008, Mr. Hamm was an associate at Kecker & Van Nest LLP in San Francisco where he worked on matters including patent, trademark and trade secret litigation, legal malpractice defense, qui tam litigation, securities actions, and internal investigations. Before attending law school, Mr. Hamm worked for three years as a newspaper reporter for the Concord Monitor in New Hampshire.

Klaus joined Klarquist in 2008 as a lateral associate and became partner in 2012.
